MAY IT PLEASE THE HEARINGS PANEL:

- 1 Counsel for the Canterbury Museum Trust Board (the submitter) seeks leave to cross-examine the following witnesses:
 - 1.1 Caroline Rachlin, planner for the Christchurch City Council, in relation to her planning evidence, in particular her assessment of the historic heritage objective and policy framework, issues relating to the assessment and identification of historic heritage, provisions for heritage items and site specific heritage listings.
 - 1.2 Amanda Ohs, Senior Heritage Advisor for the Christchurch City Council, in relation to her assessment and identification of heritage items and heritage settings for listings in the proposed District Plan.
 - 1.3 Dr Ann Mcewan, Heritage Consultant for the Christchurch City Council, in relation to her recommendation to include the Roger Duff Wing and the Centennial Memorial Wing as part of a single Group 1 listing for the Canterbury Museum on the Schedule of Significant Historic Heritage Places in the Plan.
- 2 Counsel estimates that 10 minutes will be required for cross-examination of each of the above witnesses.

DATED 12 January 2016
